5. Historical Mansion

Relive the splendour of a bygone era at The Edison on Malaysia's Penang island. Presiding over historical George Town, the hotel is housed in a 110-year old mansion, once home to a prominent Hokkien tycoon. The building is a classic example of colonial Straits Eclectic architecture, while its 35 rooms are replete with rich heritage features and periodic furniture. Unwind at the hotel's pool, sip on cocktails under its shady cabanas, or head to the in-house library for a relaxing read after a day of exploring.
